

ALKALINE

Meaning: Alkaline refers to a substance having a pH greater than 7, indicating a basic nature that can affect chemical properties and biological systems.

1. The water in the lake has an alkaline pH, making it suitable for certain aquatic life.
2. Many people choose alkaline diets, believing they can improve overall health.
3. Alkaline batteries are known for their long shelf life and reliable performance.
4. The soil in this region is naturally alkaline, affecting the types of plants that can thrive.
5. He tested the solution with litmus paper to determine if it was alkaline or acidic.
6. Some researchers study the effects of alkaline substances on human metabolism.
7. Alkaline cleaners are often used in industrial settings to remove grease and grime.
8. The chemistry class focused on the properties of alkaline solutions and their reactions.
9. Consuming alkaline foods is said to help balance the body's acidity levels.
10. The alkaline content of the mineral water gives it a distinct taste and health benefits.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/alkaline>