

ALKALIZATION

Meaning: Alkalization is the process of making a substance more alkaline or less acidic, often by adding alkaline substances.

1. Alkalization of the soil can significantly improve crop yield.
2. The process of alkalization helps to neutralize acid in the water supply.
3. Researchers are studying the effects of alkalization on marine ecosystems.
4. Alkalization can enhance the effectiveness of certain agricultural fertilizers.
5. In chemistry, alkalization refers to the addition of a base to a solution.
6. The alkalization of the lake has led to a decline in some fish species.
7. Farmers often use lime for the alkalization of acidic soils.
8. The alkalization process is crucial in creating a balanced pH level in aquariums.
9. Environmentalists are concerned about the alkalization of natural water sources.
10. Alkalization may play a role in improving the health of the digestive system.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/alkalization>