

ALLEGEMENT

Meaning: Allegement: a formal assertion or claim, often made without proof, regarding wrongdoing or misconduct.

1. The allegation made in the report raised serious concerns about the company's practices.
2. Despite the allegation of misconduct, the investigation found no evidence to support the claims.
3. Her allegation regarding the unfair treatment of employees prompted an internal review.
4. The defendant denied the allegation, asserting that it was based on misunderstandings.
5. He filed a formal complaint following the allegation of discrimination at work.
6. The board took the allegation seriously and promised a thorough inquiry.
7. An allegation of fraud can lead to significant legal consequences for the accused.
8. The celebrity's allegation against the producer sparked a nationwide conversation about harassment.
9. In court, the allegation was challenged by compelling counter-evidence presented by the defense.
10. The journalist investigated the allegation and published a detailed exposé on the matter.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/allegation>