

ALLIABLE

Meaning: Alliable: capable of forming strong connections or bonds between individuals.

1. The concept of being alliable suggests a strong connection between individuals.
2. In her speech, she emphasized the alliable nature of their shared experiences.
3. The alliable traits observed in their friendship made it even more special.
4. He found that their thoughts were alliable, leading to a deeper understanding.
5. Their alliable relationship allowed them to communicate without words.
6. The theory proposed that emotions could be alliable across different cultures.
7. In moments of crisis, their alliable bond provided much-needed support.
8. Research shows that empathy is often an alliable quality among close friends.
9. The alliable dynamics in the team fostered an atmosphere of collaboration.
10. She appreciated how alliable their goals were, making teamwork effortless.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/alliable>