

ALLOTMENT

Meaning: Allotment refers to the allocation or distribution of a portion of resources, such as funds or land, for a specific purpose or use.

1. The city council approved the allotment of additional funds for community development.
2. She was thrilled to receive her garden allotment at the local park.
3. His allotment of responsibilities included managing the team's budget and schedules.
4. The charity received an allotment of food donations to distribute to families in need.
5. The students were given an allotment of time to complete their project presentations.
6. Each employee was granted an allotment of vacation days to use throughout the year.
7. The government announced a new allotment of land for affordable housing.
8. Her allotment of resources was limited, but she made the most of what she had.
9. They decided to expand their allotment of crops to increase their harvest this season.
10. The board discussed the allotment of shares to new investors during the meeting.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/allotment>