

ALLUVIAL

Meaning: Alluvial refers to soil or sediment that is deposited by the action of flowing water, typically found in riverbanks and floodplains.

1. The alluvial deposits along the riverbank provided fertile soil for agriculture.
2. Scientists studied the alluvial fan formed by the river's change in course over centuries.
3. Artifacts discovered in the alluvial layers suggested ancient human settlement in the area.
4. The alluvial plains were teeming with diverse plant life due to regular flooding.
5. Farmers often prefer alluvial soil for its rich nutrients and good drainage.
6. The geologist explained how alluvial processes shaped the landscape through erosion and sedimentation.
7. Tourists flocked to the alluvial region to explore its unique geological features.
8. Alluvial mining has raised concerns about environmental degradation in the river system.
9. The town's location on an alluvial plain made it susceptible to seasonal flooding.
10. Research indicates that alluvial systems play a crucial role in maintaining biodiversity in wetlands.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/alluvial>