

ALLUVION

Meaning: Alluvion refers to the sediment or soil deposited by the action of water, especially along riverbanks and floodplains.

1. The heavy rains caused alluvion to build up along the riverbanks.
2. Farmers often seek land that has a rich layer of alluvion for planting crops.
3. The alluvion deposited by the floods altered the landscape significantly.
4. Historical records show how alluvion has shaped the valley over centuries.
5. In legal terms, alluvion refers to the gradual accumulation of sediment on land.
6. The ecologist studied the alluvion to understand its impact on local habitats.
7. Alluvion can create fertile plains, beneficial for agriculture and wildlife.
8. During the spring thaw, alluvion can lead to unexpected terrain changes.
9. Coastal regions are frequently affected by alluvion from river systems.
10. The presence of alluvion indicates a dynamic interaction between water and land.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/alluvion>