

ALOOFNESS

Meaning: Aloofness is the quality of being emotionally distant or uninvolved, making it challenging for others to form personal connections.

1. Her aloofness made it difficult for others to connect with her on a personal level.
2. Despite his aloofness, he was deeply compassionate and cared for those around him.
3. The character's aloofness was a defense mechanism developed from years of hardship.
4. Many interpreted her aloofness as snobbery, but it stemmed from her shyness.
5. His aloofness in social situations often left people feeling uncomfortable and unsure.
6. She admired his aloofness, believing it added an air of mystery to his personality.
7. The aloofness of the cat made it hard for the children to befriend her.
8. In moments of need, his aloofness melted away, revealing a more vulnerable side.
9. The aloofness he exhibited during meetings hinted at his lack of interest in the project.
10. Aloofness can sometimes be misread as arrogance, creating unintended misunderstandings.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/aloofness>