

ALTERABLE

Meaning: Alterable: capable of being changed or modified.

1. The terms of the agreement are alterable based on mutual consent.
2. Her perspective on life seemed alterable after attending the seminar.
3. The software settings are alterable, allowing users to customize their experience.
4. He realized that his initial plans were alterable as new information emerged.
5. The design of the project is alterable to accommodate different preferences.
6. They agreed that the timeline for the project was alterable if necessary.
7. The committee discussed whether the rules were alterable in exceptional cases.
8. She found that her schedule was alterable, making it easier to fit in new commitments.
9. His viewpoint was not alterable, despite the compelling arguments presented.
10. The fabric of the dress was alterable, permitting adjustments to fit different sizes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/alterable>