

ALTERCATIVE

Meaning: Altercative: characterized by or involving argument or disagreement; contentious.

1. The altercative nature of their debate often led to heated exchanges.
2. In a heated altercative discussion, both sides struggled to maintain their composure.
3. The altercative remarks during the meeting created an uncomfortable atmosphere.
4. She was known for her altercative style, always eager to provoke thought and challenge ideas.
5. An altercative dialogue can sometimes yield unexpected insights and solutions.
6. His altercative comments sparked a lively discussion among the panelists.
7. The altercative atmosphere of the courtroom was palpable as the lawyers presented their arguments.
8. They found themselves in an altercative dispute that seemed to have no end in sight.
9. The altercative tone of the conversation indicated deeper issues between the two friends.
10. As tensions rose, the altercative exchanges became more personal and intense.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/altercative>