

ALUMINIZE

Meaning: To aluminize means to coat a surface with aluminum to improve its durability and corrosion resistance.

1. To improve its durability, the team decided to aluminize the metal components.
2. The process to aluminize the surface significantly enhances corrosion resistance.
3. Engineers often aluminize parts that will be exposed to extreme heat.
4. They chose to aluminize the aircraft's exterior for better reflectivity and weight reduction.
5. Aluminizing can be a crucial step in the manufacturing of high-performance machinery.
6. The technicians learned how to properly aluminize the alloy to ensure a strong bond.
7. By aluminizing the steel, they aimed to prolong its lifespan in harsh environments.
8. The factory specialized in techniques to aluminize various materials effectively.
9. After they aluminize the surface, it becomes more aesthetically pleasing and functional.
10. Researchers explored new methods to aluminize substrates without compromising their integrity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/aluminize>