

ALVEOLIFORM

Meaning: Alveoliform refers to a structure that is hollow or cavity-like, resembling an alveolus, often providing a specific arrangement or habitat in biological contexts.

1. The alveoliform structure of the coral provides a unique habitat for marine life.
2. Researchers discovered an alveoliform arrangement in the microscopic examination of the tissue.
3. The design of the alveoliform sculpture captivated visitors at the art exhibition.
4. In biology, alveoliform patterns can enhance the efficiency of gas exchange in certain species.
5. The alveoliform feature of the fossil indicated its evolutionary adaptations.
6. Architects often draw inspiration from alveoliform patterns found in nature.
7. The alveoliform cells in the lungs play a crucial role in respiration.
8. An alveoliform formation can be seen in the intricate designs of some plant leaves.
9. The study focused on the alveoliform characteristics of a newly discovered organism.
10. In paleontology, identifying alveoliform structures helps classify ancient species.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/alveoliform>