

AMBASSADORIAL

Meaning: Ambassadorial refers to the responsibilities and functions associated with the role of an ambassador, particularly in the context of representing a country and engaging in international relations.

1. The ambassadorial duties require a deep understanding of international relations.
2. Her ambassadorial role allowed her to influence policy decisions at the highest level.
3. He was appointed to an ambassadorial position after years of diplomatic service.
4. The ambassadorial meeting was set to address key issues between the two nations.
5. In her ambassadorial capacity, she advocated for human rights around the world.
6. His ambassadorial experience made him a valuable asset during negotiations.
7. The ambassadorial suite was elegantly designed to impress visiting dignitaries.
8. She prepared for her ambassadorial presentation with great attention to detail.
9. The country sought an ambassadorial candidate with strong leadership skills.
10. An ambassadorial visit often symbolizes the strengthening of bilateral ties.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ambassadorial>