

AMBIVALENT

Meaning: Ambivalent: having mixed feelings or contradictory ideas about something or someone.

1. She felt ambivalent about accepting the job offer, torn between excitement and doubt.
2. His ambivalent feelings towards moving to a new city made the decision more complicated.
3. The ambivalent response from the audience indicated that the performance was both loved and criticized.
4. Despite her ambivalent stance on the issue, she participated in the debate to voice her concerns.
5. He had an ambivalent relationship with his childhood friend, filled with both affection and resentment.
6. The film's ambivalent portrayal of its protagonist left viewers questioning their moral judgments.
7. She was ambivalent about the upcoming wedding, experiencing both joy for her friend and sadness for herself.
8. The ambivalent nature of the political climate has left many citizens feeling confused and frustrated.
9. Her ambivalent attitude towards technology often led to conflicting opinions during discussions.
10. They approached the ambivalent situation with caution, knowing that any decision could have lasting consequences.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ambivalent>