

AMIABLENESS

Meaning: Amiableness refers to the quality of being friendly, pleasant, and agreeable in demeanor.

1. Her amiableness made her a favorite among her colleagues at the office.
2. The teacher's amiableness created a warm and inviting classroom atmosphere.
3. Despite the stressful situation, his amiableness shone through, easing everyone's tension.
4. They appreciated her amiableness, which made even the most difficult conversations manageable.
5. Amiableness is often seen as a key trait in successful leaders.
6. His amiableness allowed him to connect with people from all walks of life.
7. The amiableness of the staff made the restaurant a welcoming place for families.
8. In a world often filled with conflict, her amiableness stood out as a refreshing quality.
9. Her amiableness was contagious, brightening the mood of everyone around her.
10. They admired his amiableness, which helped to foster a collaborative team spirit.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/amiableness>