

AMPLIFICATION

Meaning: Amplification is the process of increasing the volume, intensity, or prominence of sound, ideas, or messages.

1. The amplification of sound in the concert hall created an unforgettable experience for the audience.
2. Social media has played a significant role in the amplification of public opinions and social movements.
3. The scientist explained how amplification in genetics can lead to a better understanding of mutations.
4. During the presentation, the speaker used visual aids for the amplification of their key points.
5. The amplification of the signal allowed for clearer communication over long distances.
6. Amplification techniques in photography can enhance the details of an image dramatically.
7. In music production, amplification is crucial for elevating a track's overall impact.
8. The amplification of climate change discussions has raised awareness worldwide.
9. She relied on amplification devices to ensure her voice was heard during the lecture.
10. The artist's work reflects an amplification of cultural themes prevalent in society today.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/amplification>