

AMPUTATING

Meaning: Amputating refers to the surgical removal of a limb or part of a limb.

1. The surgeon discussed the risks associated with amputating a limb.
2. Amputating the infected toe was the only option to save the patient's life.
3. She struggled with the decision of amputating her leg after the accident.
4. His experience in amputating limbs made him one of the best surgeons in the region.
5. Amputating a finger can be a traumatic experience for both the patient and the family.
6. The doctors explained that amputating the arm would alleviate her chronic pain.
7. In some cases, amputating a diseased body part can lead to a better quality of life.
8. They were faced with the difficult choice of amputating a foot or risking further complications.
9. Amputating her hand allowed her to focus on rehabilitation and learning to adapt.
10. The rapid decision-making involved in amputating a limb can be crucial in emergency situations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/amputating>