AMPUTATOR

Meaning: Amputator: a medical professional specialized in performing amputations, particularly in surgical or emergency contexts.

1. The amputator skillfully performed the delicate surgery, ensuring the patient's safety.
2. In a grim war zone, the amputator's expertise became invaluable to the injured soldiers.
3. The documentary highlighted the life of an amputator who dedicated years to helping others.
4. As an amputator, he often faced difficult decisions that weighed heavily on his conscience.
5. She admired the amputator's precision and determination in the operating room.
6. In the field of medicine, the role of the amputator is crucial for trauma recovery.
7. The amputator explained the procedures to the patient, easing their fears about the surgery.
8. Educators invited the amputator to speak about the psychological aspects of limb loss.
9. The amputator's reputation for success drew patients from far and wide seeking his care.
10. With every amputation, the amputator took a moment to reflect on the impact of his work.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/amputator