

AMUCK

Meaning: Amuck means behaving in a frenzied, uncontrolled, or chaotic manner.

1. The children ran amuck in the playground, laughing and screaming as they chased each other.
2. After the announcement, the crowd surged forward, running amuck in their excitement to get a better view.
3. The party quickly turned chaotic, with guests dancing amuck and spilling drinks everywhere.
4. Her emotions went amuck after she received the unexpected news, leaving her in a state of confusion.
5. The wild animals were seen running amuck in the streets after the gates of the zoo were left open.
6. As the deadline approached, the team worked amuck, forgetting their usual protocols in a frenzy.
7. With the game on the line, the players began to play amuck, losing their strategy in the heat of the moment.
8. The children let their imaginations run amuck as they created fantastical stories about their adventures.
9. During the festival, the revelers celebrated amuck, filling the streets with music and laughter.
10. In a moment of panic, the crowd acted amuck, overwhelming the exits and causing a chaotic scene.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/amuck>