

ANETIC

Meaning: Anetic refers to a substance or medication that induces a state of numbness or loss of sensation, particularly in relation to pain relief.

1. The anetic effects of the medication made the patient feel numb to the pain.
2. After the surgery, the doctors ensured that the anetic was wearing off slowly to minimize discomfort.
3. She was relieved to find that the anetic cream worked quickly during her dermatological procedure.
4. In the lab, researchers tested a new anetic compound that promised faster recovery times.
5. The dentist used an anetic to ensure the patient remained comfortable throughout the procedure.
6. Anetic agents are vital in modern medicine for performing painless surgeries.
7. He often wondered how anetic solutions could completely block nerve signals.
8. The anetic properties of the drug were thoroughly examined in clinical trials.
9. Patients appreciated the anetic's ability to alleviate their anxiety before the operation.
10. Understanding the mechanisms behind anetic substances can lead to better pain management strategies.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/anetic>