

ANGERLY

Meaning: Angrily: in a manner that expresses strong feelings of displeasure or hostility.

1. She spoke angrily, her voice rising above the noise of the crowd.
2. He slammed the door angrily, showing his frustration with the situation.
3. The teacher looked at the students angrily after they disrupted the class.
4. She responded angrily to the unfair criticism directed at her work.
5. He clenched his fists angrily when he heard the unfair accusation.
6. The manager addressed the team angrily, demanding better performance.
7. They argued angrily, unable to find common ground on the issue.
8. The dog barked angrily at the stranger approaching the house.
9. Her angrily written letter expressed the depth of her disappointment.
10. He left the meeting angrily, feeling that his opinions were dismissed.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/angrily>