

ANGLES

Meaning: Angles are the space between two intersecting lines or surfaces measured in degrees.

1. The architect carefully calculated the angles of the roof to ensure optimal drainage.
2. In geometry, the sum of the angles in a triangle always equals 180 degrees.
3. She adjusted the camera to capture the best angles of the landscape.
4. The artist used various angles to create depth in her painting.
5. During the meeting, they discussed the different angles of the project proposal.
6. Mathematicians study the relationships between angles to solve complex problems.
7. The building's design featured sharp angles that gave it a modern look.
8. He approached the problem from several angles before finding a solution.
9. Different angles can dramatically change the perception of a photograph.
10. In physics, the angle of incidence affects the angle of reflection.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/angles>