ANGRILY

Meaning: ANGRILY: in a manner that expresses strong displeasure or hostility.

1. She slammed the door angrily, making the entire house shake.
2. He spoke to her angrily, his frustration evident in his voice.
3. The teacher looked at the students angrily after catching them cheating.
4. Angrily, she threw the magazine across the room in disbelief.
5. He stormed out of the meeting angrily, feeling unheard.
6. She replied angrily to the rude comment, defending herself fiercely.
7. He shook his head angrily, unwilling to accept the unfair decision.
8. Angrily, she confronted him about the broken promise.
9. The child stomped his feet angrily, upset about not getting dessert.
10. She typed out an email angrily, expressing her dissatisfaction with the service.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/angrily