

ANGRINESS

Meaning: Angriness is the state or quality of being angry; intense feelings of displeasure or hostility.

1. Her face was a portrait of angriness as she confronted the injustice.
2. The angriness in his voice made it clear he was not to be trifled with.
3. Despite her initial angriness, she managed to remain calm during the discussion.
4. The room was filled with a palpable sense of angriness that was hard to ignore.
5. His angriness stemmed from years of being overlooked and undervalued.
6. She expressed her angriness through art, channeling her frustration into vibrant colors.
7. The angriness of the crowd escalated as the debate heated up.
8. In moments of angriness, it's important to step back and find clarity.
9. The angriness she felt was a catalyst for change in her life.
10. He found it challenging to express his angriness without coming across as aggressive.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/angriness>