

ANGRY

Meaning: ANGRY: feeling or showing strong displeasure or hostility.

1. She felt angry when she discovered the truth.
2. His angry outburst surprised everyone in the room.
3. They were angry about the unfair treatment they received.
4. The angry storm rattled the windows and shook the house.
5. She tried to calm down her angry friend before the meeting.
6. He wrote an angry letter to the editor expressing his frustration.
7. The angry look on his face made her hesitate to speak.
8. She was angry at herself for missing the opportunity.
9. After the argument, their once-friendly relationship felt strained and angry.
10. The children were angry because they had to leave the playground early.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/angry>