

ANKER

Meaning: An 'anker' is a device, typically a heavy object, used to moor or secure a vessel in place, commonly referred to as an anchor.

1. The ship's anker held firm against the raging storm.
2. He used an anker to secure the boat to the dock.
3. The fisherman carefully inspected the anker before casting off.
4. Her jewelry design featured a delicate anker as a symbol of hope.
5. The diver discovered an ancient anker resting on the ocean floor.
6. They decided to drop the anker in deeper waters to fish for larger catches.
7. The anker was crucial for stabilizing the vessel during rough seas.
8. He found an intricately carved anker while exploring the seaside ruins.
9. The sailor praised the quality of the new anker he had purchased.
10. An anker can be a lifesaver when navigating turbulent waters.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/anker>