ANNEX

Meaning: Annex: to add or attach a territory or supplementary document to a larger entity or agreement.

1. The government decided to annex the disputed territory after a lengthy negotiation process.
2. In the latest edition of the report, you'll find an annex that includes additional statistical data.
3. The historic mansion was built as an annex to the main estate, providing extra space for guests.
4. After the war, several countries attempted to annex parts of their neighbors' land.
5. The architect proposed to build an annex to the library to accommodate more visitors.
6. Several documents were included in the annex, detailing the terms of the agreement.
7. The school plans to annex the adjacent lot to expand its playground facilities.
8. They voted to annex the new area to the city, allowing for better infrastructure development.
9. An annex to the treaty was signed, outlining the responsibilities of each party involved.
10. The company decided to annex the smaller firm to enhance its market presence.
11. The government plans to annex the disputed territory after the upcoming referendum.
12. She decided to annex the additional chapter to her thesis for clarity and depth.
13. The historic building was carefully restored, and an annex was added for modern amenities.
14. To strengthen its influence, the country sought to annex neighboring regions.
15. The school will annex a new wing to accommodate the growing student population.
16. In the contract, there was an annex detailing the terms of service and delivery.
17. The artist's latest exhibit is set to annex her previous works with a fresh perspective.
18. The city council voted to annex the farmland to expand urban development.
19. In her presentation, she included an annex with supplementary data and research findings.
20. The library's new annex features a reading room and a coffee shop for patrons.
21. The architect proposed to annex a new wing to the existing building.
22. After much debate, the committee decided to annex the land for the community park.

23. The country aimed to annex the small island, citing historical claims.

24. She included important documents as an annex to her research paper.

25. The organization will annex the latest findings to its annual report.

26. The city plans to annex several neighborhoods to expand its boundaries.

27. In the meeting, they discussed the possibility of an annex to the main office.

28. The treaty not only addressed trade but also outlined terms for territorial annexation.

29. To enhance the presentation, he opted to annex additional visuals that supported his argument.

30. The school board voted to annex resources from nearby districts to improve funding.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/annex