

ANNIHILABLE

Meaning: Annihilable: capable of being completely destroyed or eliminated.

1. The scientist argued that certain forms of energy are annihilable under specific conditions.
2. In the face of overwhelming evidence, the theory proved to be annihilable and was discarded.
3. The concept of annihilable matter challenges our understanding of physics.
4. During the debate, she claimed that all prejudices are annihilable through education and awareness.
5. In a universe governed by entropy, some states of matter may be considered annihilable.
6. He believed that hatred is annihilable through love and understanding.
7. The researchers focused on identifying annihilable entities in their experimental models.
8. The team proposed a method to make previously thought annihilable materials stable.
9. Philosophers have long pondered whether certain human beliefs are annihilable or eternal.
10. In theoretical discussions, the idea of annihilable dimensions sparked intense interest among physicists.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/annihilable>