

ANNOUNCE

Meaning: To make a public declaration or statement about something.

1. The company plans to announce its new product line next week.
2. She decided to announce her engagement to her friends during dinner.
3. The mayor will announce the new public safety initiatives at the town hall meeting.
4. They gathered in the auditorium to hear the principal announce the scholarship recipients.
5. He was excited to announce his promotion to the entire team.
6. The school will announce the results of the science fair on Friday afternoon.
7. We should announce our decision to the staff as soon as possible.
8. The organization will announce its fundraising goals at the annual gala.
9. She nervously prepared to announce the winner of the art competition.
10. The president is set to announce a series of new policies in his address tonight.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/announce>