

ANNOUNCEMENT

Meaning: Announcement: a formal statement or declaration made to inform people about something important or noteworthy.

1. The company made an official announcement about the new product launch.
2. Her announcement at the meeting took everyone by surprise.
3. The school principal issued a brief announcement regarding the schedule changes.
4. After much anticipation, the announcement of the award winners finally came.
5. He felt a mix of excitement and anxiety before making his big announcement.
6. The government's announcement about the new policy sparked widespread debate.
7. An unexpected announcement during the event changed the course of the evening.
8. Everyone gathered in the courtyard for the much-awaited announcement.
9. The announcement was met with cheers and applause from the audience.
10. She carefully crafted her announcement to ensure clarity and impact.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/announcement>