

ANNOUNCER

Meaning: An announcer is a person who speaks publicly to provide information or commentary, often in a broadcasting or live event context.

1. The announcer's voice echoed through the stadium, thrilling the crowd.
2. As the race began, the announcer provided live updates for the eager viewers.
3. She admired the announcer's ability to keep the audience engaged throughout the event.
4. The announcer struggled to contain his excitement as the winning team was announced.
5. With a booming voice, the announcer introduced the keynote speaker at the conference.
6. Listeners tuned in to hear the announcer's commentary on the latest sports events.
7. The announcer cleverly used humor to lighten the mood during the long delay.
8. During the awards ceremony, the announcer read the nominees with great enthusiasm.
9. The announcer's clear and articulate delivery made it easy for everyone to follow along.
10. She aspired to be an announcer one day, captivated by the energy of live broadcasts.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/announcer>