

ANNOY

Meaning: To disturb or irritate someone, causing displeasure or frustration.

1. Her constant interruptions began to annoy everyone in the meeting.
2. I didn't mean to annoy you with my questions; I was just curious.
3. The loud music from the party next door really started to annoy me.
4. He has a unique ability to annoy his siblings without even trying.
5. It annoys me when people chew loudly during meals.
6. Traffic jams always seem to annoy me on my way to work.
7. She tried to focus on her book, but the chatter in the café was annoying.
8. His habit of leaving dirty dishes in the sink can be quite annoying.
9. It annoys me to see litter scattered all over the park.
10. The repeated notifications from the app began to annoy her.
11. Her constant humming during the movie began to annoy me.
12. It annoys him when people interrupt him while he's speaking.
13. The loud music from the party next door is starting to annoy the neighbors.
14. Even the smallest things can annoy me when I'm stressed.
15. She tried to focus on her work, but the tapping of his pen continued to annoy her.
16. His habit of arriving late to every meeting can really annoy his colleagues.
17. It annoys me when people chew with their mouths open.
18. The repeated notifications on my phone were beginning to annoy me significantly.
19. I find it annoying when my favorite shows get canceled unexpectedly.