

ANNOYING

Meaning: ANNOYING: causing irritation or discomfort through persistent disturbance or interruption.

1. The constant noise from the construction site is incredibly annoying.
2. She found his habit of interrupting her during conversations quite annoying.
3. It can be annoying when people don't follow the rules we've set.
4. His tendency to leave dirty dishes in the sink is really annoying.
5. The repetitive commercials on TV became annoyingly familiar.
6. I find it annoying when my phone battery dies right before an important call.
7. Her incessant tapping on the table was driving me to the brink of annoyance.
8. It's annoying how people often jump to conclusions without knowing the facts.
9. The delays in public transportation are annoyingly common during rush hour.
10. He has an annoying habit of correcting people's grammar in casual conversations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/annoying>