ANNUNCIATOR

Meaning: An annunciator is a device that signals or indicates the status or condition of a system, often through visual or audible alerts.

1. The annunciator lit up, indicating a malfunction in the system.
2. In the control room, the technician monitored the annunciator for any alerts.
3. An annunciator panel is essential for ensuring the safety of the aircraft.
4. The fire alarm's annunciator provided clear guidance during the evacuation.
5. She quickly learned how to interpret the signals on the annunciator display.
6. The new model features an advanced annunciator that enhances user interaction.
7. During the test, the annunciator successfully communicated various status updates.
8. The operator glanced at the annunciator, noting the illuminated warning lights.
9. An efficient annunciator helps reduce response times in emergency situations.
10. His role involved troubleshooting issues that arose from the annunciator system.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/annunciator