

ANTAGONISM

Meaning: Antagonism is a strong feeling of hostility or opposition between individuals or groups.

1. The antagonism between the two rival factions has escalated over the years.
2. Her constant criticism created a sense of antagonism within the team.
3. The play explored themes of love and antagonism in a complex family dynamic.
4. Despite their antagonism, the two leaders were forced to collaborate on the project.
5. He felt a deep antagonism towards those who opposed his beliefs.
6. The antagonism displayed in the debate was palpable and affected the audience.
7. Their history of antagonism made it difficult to find common ground.
8. She tried to diffuse the antagonism between her friends by suggesting a compromise.
9. The novel depicts the antagonism between social classes in a thought-provoking way.
10. Antagonism can often lead to misunderstandings that complicate relationships.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/antagonism>