

ANTHROPOIDAL

Meaning: Anthropoidal refers to having human-like characteristics or resembling humans, especially in form or appearance.

1. The anthropoidal features of the sculpture gave it a lifelike appearance.
2. Researchers studied the anthropoidal characteristics of the ancient artifacts found in the cave.
3. His fascination with anthropoidal creatures led him to pursue a degree in anthropology.
4. The documentary explored the evolutionary significance of anthropoidal primates.
5. In her lecture, she described the anthropoidal traits that distinguish humans from other species.
6. The anthropoidal design of the robot was intended to make it more relatable to users.
7. An anthropoidal skeleton was discovered, revealing insights into early human evolution.
8. The artist's work often reflects anthropoidal themes, merging human and animal forms.
9. Anthropoidal behaviors in primates can shed light on the origins of human social structures.
10. The museum exhibit featured a range of anthropoidal models depicting various stages of evolution.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/anthropoidal>