

ANTHROPOLOGIST

Meaning: An anthropologist is a scholar or researcher who studies human societies, cultures, and their development, often through fieldwork and analysis of social practices.

1. The anthropologist conducted extensive fieldwork among the indigenous tribes.
2. During her research, the anthropologist uncovered fascinating insights into ancient cultures.
3. An anthropologist often collaborates with local communities to understand their traditions.
4. His findings as an anthropologist challenged preconceived notions about human evolution.
5. The anthropologist presented her thesis on the impact of globalization on rural societies.
6. Studying artifacts is a crucial part of an anthropologist's work in archaeology.
7. An anthropologist may use both qualitative and quantitative methods in their studies.
8. The documentary featured an anthropologist exploring the nuances of modern rituals.
9. In her role as an anthropologist, she emphasized the importance of cultural relativism.
10. The anthropologist's lecture provided a new perspective on social structures in various societies.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/anthropologist>