

ANTIBUBONIC

Meaning: Antibubonic refers to substances or treatments that are effective in preventing or alleviating the symptoms of bubonic plague.

1. The scientist was fascinated by the antibubonic properties of certain herbs used in traditional medicine.
2. Antibubonic treatments were a critical part of the medical response during historical outbreaks of plague.
3. The research team focused on developing an antibubonic vaccine to combat future epidemics.
4. She read an ancient manuscript detailing the antibubonic practices of medieval healers.
5. His grandfather often spoke of antibubonic remedies that were passed down through generations.
6. In the lab, they tested various compounds for their antibubonic effectiveness against the bacteria.
7. The conference featured a presentation on the historical significance of antibubonic strategies in public health.
8. As a historian, she was particularly intrigued by the evolution of antibubonic theories over the centuries.
9. The discovery of antibubonic agents has revolutionized our understanding of infectious diseases.
10. Public health officials emphasized the importance of antibubonic measures during the outbreak.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/antibubonic>