

ANTICIPATING

Meaning: Anticipating refers to the act of expecting or predicting something that is likely to happen in the future.

1. Anticipating the outcome of the election kept her awake at night.
2. He was anticipating a surprise visit from his long-lost friend.
3. The children were eagerly anticipating the arrival of summer vacation.
4. She found herself anticipating his every move during the intense game.
5. Anticipating the changes in the market, the company adjusted its strategy.
6. They were anticipating the release of the highly awaited movie.
7. Anticipating the storm, the school decided to cancel classes for the day.
8. He spent the evening anticipating her response to his proposal.
9. Anticipating difficulties, they prepared thoroughly for the presentation.
10. She was anticipating the joy of seeing her family after so many years.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/anticipating>