

ANTICONSTITUTIONAL

Meaning: Anticonstitutional refers to actions, laws, or measures that violate or are contrary to the principles or provisions of a constitution.

1. The proposed law was deemed anticonstitutional by the Supreme Court.
2. Activists rallied against what they considered an anticonstitutional act by the government.
3. The senator's speech highlighted the dangers of anticonstitutional amendments to the existing laws.
4. Many citizens were concerned that the new policy was fundamentally anticonstitutional.
5. Legal experts debated whether the executive order was anticonstitutional in nature.
6. The ruling emphasized that any actions taken against civil liberties could be labeled as anticonstitutional.
7. She argued that the restrictions on free speech were clearly anticonstitutional.
8. The judge ruled the defendant's rights were violated in an anticonstitutional manner.
9. Critics of the bill warned that it could lead to anticonstitutional consequences for democracy.
10. Understanding the implications of anticonstitutional actions is essential for protecting individual rights.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/anticonstitutional>