

ANTIHEMORRHAGIC

Meaning: Antihemorrhagic refers to a substance or agent that prevents or controls bleeding.

1. The doctor prescribed an antihemorrhagic agent to control the bleeding during surgery.
2. In traditional medicine, certain herbs are believed to have antihemorrhagic properties.
3. The antihemorrhagic treatment was effective in reducing the patient's excessive blood loss.
4. Research is ongoing to discover new antihemorrhagic compounds that are more effective.
5. After the accident, the paramedics administered an antihemorrhagic medication to stabilize the victim.
6. Antihemorrhagic drugs are crucial in managing patients with clotting disorders.
7. The hospital stocked up on antihemorrhagic supplies in preparation for the trauma season.
8. He learned about the antihemorrhagic effects of vitamin K in his pharmacology course.
9. The nurse monitored the patient closely after administering the antihemorrhagic therapy.
10. Understanding the mechanisms of antihemorrhagic agents can help improve patient care.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/antihemorrhagic>