

ANTIVACCINATION

Meaning: Antivaccination refers to the opposition to or movement against the use of vaccines, often characterized by the promotion of misinformation about their safety and efficacy.

1. The rise of the antivaccination movement has sparked intense public debate.
2. Many parents are influenced by antivaccination propaganda found online.
3. Health officials are working hard to counter the effects of antivaccination rhetoric.
4. The antivaccination stance can lead to outbreaks of previously controlled diseases.
5. Despite overwhelming scientific evidence, some individuals remain staunchly antivaccination.
6. The community organized a forum to address concerns about antivaccination myths.
7. Antivaccination sentiments have been linked to misinformation spread on social media.
8. Public health campaigns aim to educate families about the dangers of antivaccination.
9. Some celebrities have openly endorsed antivaccination views, affecting their followers' choices.
10. Legislation has been proposed to limit the influence of antivaccination advocates in schools.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/antivaccination>