

ANTIVACCINATIONIST

Meaning: Antivaccinationist (noun): a person or member of a group who opposes the use of vaccines, often believing they pose more risks than benefits.

1. The antivaccinationist group organized a rally to express their beliefs against vaccinations.
2. Many antivaccinationists argue that vaccines can cause more harm than good.
3. In recent years, the influence of antivaccinationists has sparked significant public health debates.
4. The antivaccinationist movement often relies on misinformation to support its claims.
5. As an antivaccinationist, she believes that natural immunity is superior to vaccine-induced immunity.
6. The rise of social media has allowed antivaccinationists to spread their message more widely.
7. Public health officials are concerned about the growing number of antivaccinationists in the community.
8. An antivaccinationist website featured testimonials from parents claiming their children were harmed by vaccines.
9. Despite the overwhelming scientific consensus, some antivaccinationists remain steadfast in their beliefs.
10. The documentary explored the motivations behind the antivaccinationist movement and its impact on society.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/antivaccinationist>