

APERITIVE

Meaning: Aperitive: a drink or appetizer served before a meal to stimulate the appetite.

1. The aperitive cocktail was a delightful start to the evening.
2. She enjoyed a small aperitive before her main course arrived.
3. An aperitive can stimulate the appetite and enhance the dining experience.
4. The bar offered a selection of aperitives to whet the guests' appetites.
5. He always orders an aperitive when dining out to set the mood.
6. A light aperitive pairs perfectly with the tapas we ordered.
7. The restaurant's menu featured a unique aperitive made with local herbs.
8. They served an aperitive of sparkling wine to celebrate the occasion.
9. In Mediterranean cultures, aperitives are a cherished part of socializing.
10. Choosing the right aperitive can elevate the flavors of the meal to come.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/aperitive>