

APHETIC

Meaning: Aphetic refers to the inability to communicate or express oneself verbally due to a language disorder, often resulting from brain injury or neurological conditions.

1. The patient's aphetic condition made communication incredibly challenging.
2. After the stroke, he became aphetic and struggled to form coherent sentences.
3. Her aphetic speech patterns were a result of neurological damage.
4. The therapist specialized in helping aphetic individuals regain their communication skills.
5. Despite being aphetic, he was able to express his thoughts through gestures.
6. He experienced frustration due to his aphetic state and the inability to articulate.
7. The research focused on the variations in aphetic symptoms among different patients.
8. In conversations, his aphetic tendencies led to misunderstandings.
9. Family members learned to adapt to his aphetic responses over time.
10. The support group provided resources for those dealing with aphetic challenges.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/aphetic>