

APHID

Meaning: Aphid: a small sap-sucking insect that typically feeds on plants, often causing damage such as leaf curling and discoloration.

1. The garden was infested with aphids, causing the leaves to curl and discolor.
2. Farmers often use ladybugs as a natural remedy to control aphid populations.
3. Aphids are small insects that can reproduce rapidly under favorable conditions.
4. The scientist conducted research to understand the relationship between aphids and their host plants.
5. She noticed that the rose bushes were covered in aphids, attracting ants to the sweet honeydew they excrete.
6. Aphids can transmit plant viruses, making them a significant pest in agriculture.
7. Organic pest control methods are increasingly popular for managing aphid infestations.
8. Insects like lacewings are effective predators of aphids in garden ecosystems.
9. Some species of aphids can change color depending on their environment and stress levels.
10. The gardener applied a neem oil spray to reduce the aphid problem without harming beneficial insects.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/aphid>