

APICULAR

Meaning: Apicular refers to the pointed or tip-like part of a structure, particularly in botanical or entomological contexts.

1. The apicular region of the flower is crucial for pollination.
2. In entomology, the apicular structure of certain insects can aid in identification.
3. The biologist noted the apicular characteristics of the plant species during her research.
4. His examination revealed an apicular feature that distinguished the two species.
5. The apicular tip of the leaf showed signs of frost damage.
6. They used microscopy to study the apicular cells in greater detail.
7. The apicular margin of the leaf contributed to its aerodynamic shape.
8. In some birds, the apicular area can indicate health and vitality.
9. The artist captured the delicate apicular details of the butterfly's wings.
10. Understanding the apicular anatomy is essential for botanists studying plant evolution.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/apicular>