

APIOLOGIST

Meaning: An apologist is a person who defends or advocates for a particular cause, belief, or controversial idea, often in public discourse.

1. An apologist is often called upon to defend controversial ideas in public debates.
2. As an apologist for the environmental movement, she passionately argues for sustainable practices.
3. His role as an apologist required him to articulate the benefits of a challenging policy.
4. The apologist faced fierce criticism but remained steadfast in his beliefs.
5. In her book, the apologist explores the historical context of the philosophy she defends.
6. Many consider him an apologist for the government, despite his claims of independence.
7. The apologist's eloquent speeches captivated audiences across the country.
8. In the face of adversity, the apologist emphasized the importance of understanding opposing views.
9. She became an apologist for the arts, advocating for increased funding and support.
10. An effective apologist is skilled at balancing logic and emotion in their arguments.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/apologist>