

APOLOGISE

Meaning: To express regret or remorse for an offense or wrongdoing.

1. I need to apologise for my harsh words during the meeting.
2. She decided to apologise after realizing her mistake hurt his feelings.
3. It's important to apologise when you've wronged someone, no matter how small the issue.
4. He sent a heartfelt message to apologise for missing her birthday dinner.
5. They finally agreed to apologise to each other and move past their disagreement.
6. I would like to apologise if my actions caused any confusion or discomfort.
7. The manager chose to apologise publicly for the company's oversight.
8. Sometimes, it takes courage to apologise, even when you feel justified.
9. She was quick to apologise, knowing it was the right thing to do.
10. He found it difficult to apologise, but he knew it was necessary for their friendship.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/apologise>