

APOLOGIZE

Meaning: To express regret or say sorry for an error or offense.

1. I need to apologize for my mistake in the meeting yesterday.
2. She called to apologize for not attending my birthday party.
3. After realizing the error, he decided to apologize to his colleagues.
4. It's important to apologize sincerely when you've hurt someone.
5. They wrote a heartfelt letter to apologize for their behavior.
6. I didn't mean to offend you, and I truly apologize.
7. He had to apologize for being late to the important event.
8. Sometimes, all it takes is a simple gesture to apologize and make amends.
9. I owe you an apology for my thoughtless comments last week.
10. She found the courage to apologize, hoping to mend their friendship.
11. She decided to apologize after realizing how hurtful her words had been.
12. He called to apologize for being late to the dinner party.
13. It's important to apologize sincerely when you've done something wrong.
14. They felt it was necessary to apologize to the community for the disruption.
15. I will always apologize when I know I've upset someone I care about.
16. She bravely stepped forward to apologize to her colleagues for the oversight.
17. He wrote a heartfelt letter to apologize for his behavior at the event.
18. Sometimes, all it takes is a simple, honest apology to mend a friendship.
19. I appreciate his willingness to apologize; it shows a lot of maturity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/apologize>